2 6th Sunday Ordinary Time

Reflection on the Reading

Matthew continues the Sermon on the Mount with a three part instruction by Jesus on the Way of Life in the kingdom of heaven. In today's reading, Matthew reinterprets our understanding of "the Law and the prophets" in light of Jesus Christ.

We are reminded that the coming Messiah does not overturn the law or set his followers free from following it. Instead, Jesus fulfills all of the law by bringing the fullness of the kingdom. As followers of Christ, we are called to go beyond the law by doing more than the law requires—where the law condemned murder, for instance, Jesus condemns anger itself.

We see in Jesus someone whose life and teaching surpass all traditional interpretations of scripture, revealing to us the radical extent of God's will.

Confirmations at the 5pm Mass

At the 5pm Sunday Mass this weekend, we witness as a community the Confirmation of a number of our OCIA members. These faithful have been baptized in the Christian tradition, and now they are being received into full participation in the Catholic Church.

Let's keep praying for the spiritual growth of these candidates and the catechumens preparing for the Sacraments at the Easter Vigil. May we continue offering them encouragement and support on their journey.

Carta del Párroco

Queridos amigos en el Señor:

Durante las últimas semanas, he asistido a varias reuniones dirigidas por el arzobispo de Boston, Richard Henning. La primera reunión fue de todos los párrocos de la Arquidiócesis y la segunda incluyó a todos los consejos parroquiales y consejos financieros de la Arquidiócesis. En ambas reuniones, el arzobispo Henning habló sobre el “estado de la archidiócesis” y compartió algunas de sus observaciones tras pasar un año visitando parroquias y escuelas. Está encantado de que la Iglesia esté creciendo y de que parezca haber un renacimiento de la fe, especialmente entre los jóvenes. De cara a los próximos años, han surgido dos prioridades: 1) construir parroquias sanas y fuertes, y 2) proporcionar los recursos necesarios para la formación sacerdotal.

El arzobispo Henning ha decidido iniciar un “estudio de planificación” arquidiocesano que se llevará a cabo durante el 2026. El estudio se centrará en la vida parroquial en toda la diócesis y ayudará a orientar las decisiones sobre las necesidades pastorales y programáticas, las necesidades de capital e instalaciones, y las necesidades del personal y operativas en todas las parroquias de la diócesis. El estudio explorará la cuestión de si es apropiado, en este momento, realizar una campaña coordinada de recaudación de fondos en toda la arquidiócesis (además de la campaña anual Catholic Appeal). El arzobispo Henning ha solicitado que las parroquias de la arquidiócesis se abstengan de iniciar grandes campañas de recaudación de fondos mientras se lleva a cabo el estudio de planificación durante este año.

Como saben, ya hemos comenzado a recaudar fondos para pagar las reparaciones urgentes necesarias en el exterior de nuestro templo. La primera fase del proyecto está a punto de concluir y pronto verán cómo se retiran los andamios de la esquina noreste del edificio. El coste de la primera fase (reparación de ventanas y puertas, reparación del tejado y reparación de la mampostería) será de aproximadamente 500 000 dólares. Desde septiembre, hemos recaudado 300 000 dólares para cubrir el coste de la primera fase. La arquidiócesis nos ha dado permiso para seguir recaudando fondos este año para las reparaciones urgentes del edificio que hemos comenzado. Preveo que necesitaremos 1 000 000 de dólares adicionales para completar las reparaciones de mampostería y ventanas en el resto del edificio. Esta construcción se llevará a cabo por fases durante el próximo o los dos próximos años y las obras de mampostería en los escalones de la entrada y la esquina sureste comenzarán esta primavera. Aunque contamos con algunos fondos de reserva para cubrir parcialmente los costes actuales, necesitaremos recaudar fondos para la mayor parte de los gastos futuros.

Dependiendo de los resultados del estudio de planificación de la arquidiócesis, espero que en 2027 iniciemos una campaña de recaudación de fondos más sólida, en colaboración con la campaña arquidiocesana. Estoy emocionado por seguir trabajando en las reparaciones urgentes de nuestro edificio este año, pero aún más emocionado por empezar a soñar con todas las posibilidades que una campaña formal de recaudación de fondos hará en la vida de la parroquia en los próximos años. Estén atentos para obtener más información sobre todos estos asuntos. Espero que se unan a mí para soñar con todo lo que nuestra parroquia llegará a ser al comenzar nuestro segundo siglo.

Bendiciones,
P. John

Letter from the Pastor

Dear Friends in the Lord,

Over the past few weeks, I have attended several meetings led by Archbishop Henning. The first meeting was a gathering of all the pastors of the archdiocese, and the second meeting included all the parish councils and finance councils of the archdiocese. At both of these meetings, Archbishop Henning delivered a “state of the archdiocese” address in which he shared some of his observations after spending a year visiting parishes and schools. He is thrilled that the Church is growing and that there seems to be a revival of faith especially among young people. As he looks to the years ahead, two priorities have emerged: 1) building healthy, strong parishes, and 2) providing the resources needed for priestly formation.

Archbishop Henning has decided to begin an archdiocesan “planning study” which will take place during the 2026 calendar year. The study will be centered on parish life across the archdiocese and will help guide decisions about pastoral/programmatic demands, capital/facility needs, and staffing/operational pressures in all the parishes of the archdiocese. The study will explore the question of whether a coordinated archdiocesan-wide fundraising effort (in addition to the annual Catholic Appeal) is appropriate at this time. Archbishop Henning has requested that parishes in the archdiocese refrain from beginning any large parish capital campaigns while the planning study is taking place during the 2026 calendar year.

As you know, we have already begun raising funds to pay for the urgent repairs needed on the exterior of our church building. Phase one of the project is nearing completion, and you will soon see the scaffolding removed from the northeast corner of the building. The cost for phase one (window/door repairs, roof repairs, masonry repairs) will be approximately $500,000. Since September, we have raised $300,000 in funds to cover the cost of phase one. The archdiocese has given us permission to continue raising money this year for the urgent building repairs that we have started. I anticipate that we will need an additional $1,000,000 to complete the masonry and window repairs on the remainder of the building. This construction will take place in phases over the next year or two, with the masonry work on the front steps and southeast corner beginning this spring. While we have some reserve funds to partially cover the ongoing costs, we will need to raise philanthropic support for most of the upcoming expenses.

Depending on the results of the archdiocesan planning study, I expect that we will begin a more robust capital campaign in 2027 in conjunction with the archdiocesan campaign. I’m excited to continue working on the urgent repairs to our building this year, but I’m even more excited to start dreaming about all the possibilities for parish life that a formal capital campaign will make possible in the years ahead. Stay tuned for more information on all these matters. I hope you will join me in dreaming about all that our parish will become as we begin our second century!

Blessings,
Fr. John

Catholic Appeal 2026

Once a year, Catholics throughout the Archdiocese are asked to support the greater church by giving a gift to the Catholic Appeal. Just as our weekly collection supports parish expenses, initiatives and programs, the Catholic Appeal helps fund services that are essential to our parishes, schools and the greater community. Each of us is responsible not only for the wellbeing of our parish, but also for the wellbeing of the Church throughout our Archdiocese. In preparation, we invite you to prayerfully consider making a generous gift. To make an online pledge, please visit www.bostoncatholicappeal.org. Thank you for your prayerful consideration of the 2026 Catholic Appeal.
