Notes

- Conversation with Eileen Faggiano
  - Eileen shared her thoughts on the funeral ministry, the 60+ ministry and feedback as a 10-year attendee and coordinator of the 5:30 PM daily mass
  - The PPC expressed its gratitude for Eileen taking the time to meet with us and for her continued dedication to St. Ignatius Parish
- Updates from the Pastor
  - PPC discussed ways to inspire more people in the parish to take advantage and participate in the variety of volunteer ministries
  - General sense from Fr. John that the parish has come together to demonstrate support for people and family and that Holy Week 2026 went incredibly well
  - May 31st meeting planned after 5 PM mass to plan for LGBTQ+ ministry
  - Jesuit Provincial assistant (Fr. Jim Casciotti) is doing a formal visit to St. Ignatius May 26th - 28th. Fr. Jim will meet with the parish staff, the parish pastoral council, and the finance council
- Conversations with parishioners on May 2nd/3rd
  - Feedback on problems with the kneelers and that they are breaking down
  - Parishioners asked for ways to provide feedback regarding the liturgy
  - Some parishioners expressed interest in joining the PPC and asked related questions
  - Feedback that additional information on the parish building repairs would be useful

- General sense about the importance of continuity of care for the community across the parish and within each individual mass community
- Recruiting new PPC members
  - Discussion on initial conversations with candidates
- Discuss the Cornerstone Project
  - Cornerstone in church will be re-done and information will be shared with the parish in the near to mid term future
- Addition to Centennial Events
