

Prayer of the Faithful
February 19 - 20, 2022
7th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Presider: Desiring to adhere more fully to the teachings of Jesus, we present our prayers and petitions.

Lector:

That the church, may always be a community rich of mercy, slow to judge and ready to forgive, we pray...

That survivors of any form of abuse may find healing and justice, we pray...

That the leaders of nations may work together to ensure economic and environmental justice, we pray...

That on this President's Day weekend, our nation may reaffirm its commitment to the founding principles upon which it was built, namely, one nation, under God with liberty and justice for all, we pray...

That as we continue our celebration of Black History Month, our nation may come to understand more fully the evils of racism, white supremacy, and all forms of racial injustice and take appropriate action to address such evils, we pray...

That our St. Ignatius parish community, may fully engage the work of the synodal process so that our prayer and listening may help us to grow in unity, we pray...

For our catechumens and candidates, may they be inspired by our community's embrace of the challenges of the Gospel, we pray...

For those in our community who have asked for prayers among them Rosenia Christiansen and Antonio Cusano, may they come to know God's full measure of healing grace, we pray...

For our beloved dead, among them Carmella and Edward Tobin, Joseph Solano, James and Catherine Solano, Joseph Fortino, Elizabeth M. Paquette, John McElwee, Maria-Clotilde Antonelli, Pedro de los Santos Villalona, Barbara Shaughnessy, Andrew Segar, Lucretia Aguilar, George Ricardo Maury, and Flavian Callahan, may they now bear the image of the heavenly one, we pray...

Presider: God of love and mercy hear our prayers and give us the grace to continue to grow in mercy and love for one another through Christ our Lord. AMEN
