

Prayer of the Faithful
February 12-13, 2022
6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Presider: With trust and hope in the Lord, we present to our God our spoken prayers and those in our hearts.

Lector:

That the universal church may always hear the cries of the poor and marginalized, championing their quest for justice and human dignity, we pray...

That on this World Marriage Sunday, all married couples may embody this year's theme "Called to the Joy of Love, we pray..."

That survivors of any form of abuse may find healing and justice, always knowing that they are blessed of God, we pray...

That prosperous nations of the world may work together to address climate change and initiate a generous sharing of resources to alleviate famine and starvation, we pray...

That our country during Black History Month, may allow God to deliver us from the bondage of any conscious or unconscious racism and white supremacy so that we may more fully appreciate and celebrate the diversity of people and cultures, we pray...

That our parish community may continue to grow as a parishioner-driven, synodal parish embracing the theme of this Ignatian year: to see all things new in Christ, we pray...

For our catechumens and candidates, may living the beatitudes plant them like trees near the waters of baptism and renewal, we pray...

For the sick and those recommended to us for prayer, may they be healed and transformed through God's healing power and the comforting presence of others, we pray...

For our beloved dead, among them, Patricia Lyons VanDyke, James Giggey, Suzette Katsouros, Marjorie H. Ryan, Katherine and Patrick Bowdring, James C. Bowdring, Walter Connor, Pedro de los Santos Villalona, and Barbara Shaughnessy, may Christ, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep, gather them into a rich harvest, we pray...

Presider: Loving and merciful God, hear our prayers and help us to always hope and trust in you. We ask this through Christ our Lord. AMEN.
