    - Archbishop Henning wants to focus the archdiocese on parishes for the next year
  - Update on Advent and Christmas season
    - Programs that brought together the Spanish and English speaking communities went very well in the opinion of the pastor. The gathering after the Guadalupe mass had high attendance with a good mix of people
    - Guadalupe liturgy was noted as the best experience of combining the Spanish and English communities
      - Comment that alternating language for readings and having printed versions of both are good, as opposed to reading in one language and repeating in a second language
  - Jesuit East provincial, Father Joseph O'Keefe, visited and noted his continual support of the parish
  - Immigration Committee has been attending the protests at ICE Burlington and members of the parish have expressed support for their efforts
  - Saintly Seven banner has come together quite nicely and has now been hung in the back of the church
  - Parent Retreat day was well received by the family mass community. The PPC expresses that this may be a good event to continue annually
  - Pageant mass was well received and really enjoyed by the community

- Christmas Eve and Christmas masses were beautiful and particularly full at the 4 PM mass. There were dancers at some of the masses as well
  - 6 PM was still full
  - 4 PM was standing room only
  - PPC expressed that music has been particularly beautiful this season
- Fundraising/End of year gifts
  - ~$1M additional needed to perform urgent repairs
    - Boston College will continue to provide annual funding to the parish
    - Centennial funds are going to support the church repairs
    - Earmarked gifts must be spent on the designation
- Liturgy reforms
  - The sitting/standing changes have become more consistent across the masses
  - At communion, two species are being served again, determined the number of eucharistic ministers available
- Status of building renovations
  - Current building repairs should be completed by mid-January with scaffolding to be removed soon, dependent on the weather
  - The eastern entrance into the Lannon Chapel also need repairs urgently and may start in Spring 2026
  - 10 - 18 stained glass windows in the upper church may need to be re-leaded
  - Work has been done to ensure the HVAC systems are in an optimal state and a maintenance contract for the system has been set up. The system map is also being documented to support future work
  - The PPC expresses its ongoing support and appreciation for Monica and the work done by the Building Community
- Parish census
  - Parish census to be revisited at a later meeting
