Notes

- Pastor Update
  - Highlights from May 2025
    - Adult faith formation has been very popular
      - First two Theology Thursdays each had ~70 people attending
        - Seems like people are looking for additional adult faith formation opportunities
        - Look to start Theology Thursday as a regular meeting in the Fall
    - Victor Yanez's going away party also went really well; attended by the Spanish community and a few others
    - Final Faith Formation meeting was this past week
      - Generally, people expressed a lot of optimism about this year with more kids engaged with the Family Mass and increased attendance from the past year
        - Different classes sponsoring mass went really well
        - Good word of mouth in terms of families engaging other families to invite people to Family Mass
  - Visit by Father Casciotti, SJ, Jesuit provincial representative
    - General feedback from Fr. Casciotti was that things are going well at St. Ignatius
  - Status of Building Renovations
    - Work is about to resume next week
    - Fundraising for the building repair has continued with fundraising and church repair expenditures both progressing well

- Centennial Gala will be on October 24, 2026
- New PPC member discussion
  - The PPC is supportive of the candidacy of John Tourtelotte and Boris Penaloza
- Planning for 2026 - 2027
  - Update PPC meeting to 2nd Wednesday every month starting in October 2026
  - The PPC Retreat has been confirmed for Sept 12 (morning through lunch) at Campion Center in Weston
- Question/Discussion about parish metrics
  - Discussion about metrics/finances in the report shared with Fr. Casciotti last month
- Cornerstone Project
  - Pat and Amanda will work on a plan for the gathering of names of the community for the cornerstone project
- Archdiocesan/CSTM Initiative on Synodality
  - Discussion on Archdiocese of Boston initiative on Synodality next year
  - Fr. John will express our willingness to participate, but also to yield to other parishes
- Fundraising/Development Initiatives
  - Hiring decisions to be determined
