

Prayer of the Faithful
Pentecost Sunday
June 4 - 5, 2022

Presider: As a people formed by and in the Holy Spirit, we confidently raise our voices in prayerful petition.

Lector:

For our Church, may we reverence the many different spiritual gifts and forms of ministry among us, being ever open to new ways in which these gifts and ministries may be manifested and shared among the People of God, we pray...

For our world, may the Spirit's power help us to put an end to war, terrorism, genocide and all forms of hatred, prejudice, bigotry, racism, homophobia and transphobia, we pray....

For the unborn that they may be protected and find welcome to live in a world in which environmental and economic justice become an increasing reality, we pray...

For our St. Ignatius Parish community, may the Holy Spirit impel us during this time of transition and as we approach the end of this Ignatian Year to live more fully our parish's Jesuit/Ignatian tradition, enabling us to grow as companions in a mission of reconciliation and justice, never settling for the status quo, but ever seeking ways to grow as a synodal parish to see all things new in Christ, we pray...

For Matt Cortese and Eric Immel as they prepare for their ordination to priesthood next Saturday and our new pastor, Fr. Jim Erps, may they always follow the guidance of the Spirit as they exercise their sacerdotal ministry, we pray...

For those suffering from Covid19 and for all who need our prayers, among them Virginia Sennott, may they receive the healing and consoling gifts of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, we pray...

For our beloved dead, among them Carol Griffin McCourt, Robert E. Griffin, James and Monica McIntyre, Gerald E. Butterworth, Louis and Carolyn Clark, Paul Talmo, Janelle Louis, Maryjane Mulvanity Casey, and Peter John Boyle, may they know the eternal joys of heaven we pray...

Presider: Spirit of God, we gather these spoken prayers and all our prayers as we pray: Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your people and enkindle in them the fire of your love. We ask this through Christ our Lord. AMEN.
