

Prayers of the Faithful
Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 26 – 27, 2019

Presider:

As we bring these prayers, let us be attentive to our God who is calling us to seek justice for the lowly, the poor, the oppressed, the undocumented, refugees, asylum seekers, and the brokenhearted.

Lector:

That our Church may embrace Jesus' call to live in humility, avoid any hint of righteousness that belittles and fails to value others, we pray...Lord, hear our prayer.

That those who cannot see their own self-righteousness or oppressiveness, may experience an authentic conversion, and that those who have been hurt by the self-righteous or oppressors, may experience the grace of forgiveness, we pray...Lord, hear our prayer.

That the Synod on "The Amazon" concluding this weekend, may foster Integral Ecology and result in new paths for our Church, we pray...Lord, hear our prayer.

That we will support every effort to end all types of violence against human life in our own country and throughout the world, we pray...Lord, hear our prayer.

That as a parish community we will stand with and for those in our society who feel like outcasts or are marginalized, we pray...Lord, hear our prayer.

That the sick, the dying and those in need of our prayers may experience Christ's healing love, we pray... Lord, hear our prayer.

That, as we commemorate the Feasts of All Saints and All Souls this week, we will take time to remember all those who have died and touched our lives, among them Albert Good, Alberto Godenzi, Maria Cau Nguyen, Patricia McDermott-Grogan, Joseph Elder Olle, Mary Kennedy, and James C. Bowdring & Howard P. Bowdring, Jr., may they rejoice in being together among the saints before God in God's heavenly kingdom, we pray... Lord, hear our prayer.

Presider:

Loving God, you know no favorites and show no partiality, hear our prayers and grant them according to your justice and mercy in and through Christ our Lord.
AMEN.
