

Prayers of the Faithful
Twenty-Ninth Sunday
November 19 – 20, 2019

Presider: God is ever patient, ever loving and ever supportive of our deepest desires. With patience and trust that God hears and answers our prayers, let us offer them now with great confidence.

Lector:

For the Church, may we pray always, never lose heart, and proclaim the Scriptures regardless of whether it is convenient and inconvenient, we pray...Lord, hear our prayer.

For those suffering the horrors of war, those seeking refuge from persecution, and those still experiencing the aftermath of natural disasters, may our persistent prayers and support, help them to feel the loving comfort of God in the midst of all their pain and sorrow, we pray...Lord, hear our prayer.

For civility in our political and social discourse, that inspired by St. Paul's words, we may convince, reprimand, and encourage one another through all patience and teaching, we pray...Lord, hear our prayer.

For our St. Ignatius parish community and all our Jesuit friends and alumni, may we together fully embrace the four Universal Apostolic Preferences – showing the way to God, walking with the excluded, journeying with youth, and caring for our common home, we pray...Lord, hear our prayer.

For the sick and those in need of our prayers, may they find healing and consolation, we pray...Lord, hear our prayer.

For those who have died, among them George Kenneth Craven, Jack & Clare Egan, Nancy Regolino, Juan Esteban Alvarado, and Andrew & Joseph DeLuca, may they be welcomed into God's warm embrace and may their loved ones feel comfort in knowing the Holy Spirit accompanies them in their grief, we pray...Lord, hear our prayer.

Presider: Everliving God we know you hear and answer our prayers, help us to be persistent in prayer in and through Christ, our Lord. Amen.
