

Prayers of the Faithful
Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 10 - 11, 2018

Presider: Knowing that with God's grace we can address the needs of the poor and of our world, we confidently open our hearts in prayer and petition to receive God's grace.

Lector:

For the Church, may we generously continue to share our material and spiritual resources with the poor, trusting in God to help us to provide for the needs of all, we pray...Lord hear our prayer.

For the world, that nations may cooperate in the effective distribution of the earth's bounty, seeking to provide especially for those most in need, we pray...Lord hear our prayer.

For our country's political leaders, may they work together to address the horror and sadness resulting from gun violence, we pray...Lord hear our prayer.

For the American Bishops gathering together this week for their Annual Fall General Assembly, may they enact the necessary measures and policies that will ensure that our Church always does what is necessary and right in order to protect children and vulnerable adults, we pray...Lord hear our prayer.

On this Veteran's Day Weekend, we pray in gratitude for all those who have served and still serve our country, may their service and witness always provide protection and freedom for our nation, we pray...Lord hear our prayer.

For our St. Ignatius parish community, may we be transformed by the Eucharist we receive to be bread for others so that we may grow as compassionate advocates of immigrants and refugees, of the poor and marginalized, and of our global environment, we pray...Lord hear our prayer.

For all those who have died among them, Mark McGrath, Dennis & Margaret Singleton, Frederick T. Doyle, Jr., Jeanne Cullinan Ray, Frank Morello, Jane Walsh, and David Von Euw, those who have died serving in our armed forces, those who died in the recent shootings in Thousand Oaks, California, the Tree of Life Synagogue in Pittsburgh, the shootings in Louisville, Kentucky, those who perished in the airplane crash in Thailand and all those inscribed in our parish Book of Life, may they be welcomed into God's heavenly kingdom, we pray...Lord hear our prayer.

Presider: Almighty God, we eagerly await your grace to help us transform our world and hasten the salvation promised to us in and through Christ our Lord. AMEN.
