

Prayers of the Faithful
Twenty-Second Sunday of Ordinary Time
August 29 - 30, 2020

Presider: Trusting in God's kindness, we turn now to offer our prayers and petitions.

Lector:

That the people of God may not conform themselves to this age but be transformed by the renewal of their mind, we pray...Lord, hear our prayer.

That as a Church we may grow in discerning the will of God, embracing what is good and pleasing and perfect, we pray...Lord, hear our prayer.

That the peoples of the world may work together to end poverty and hunger, care for the earth, our common home, and help contain the spread of the coronavirus, we pray...Lord, hear our prayer.

That our nation's political parties may put country before party to do all they can to address issues of economic inequality, unemployment, racism and all the evils that plagues our nation, we pray...Lord, hear our prayer.

That parishioners of our St. Ignatius parish and those of all parish communities may continue to support their parish with their time, talent and treasure, we pray...Lord, hear our prayer.

That those who have asked for our prayers may cling fast to God and feel God's right hand upholding them, we pray...Lord, hear our prayer.

That our beloved dead among them, our parishioner, John Hwee, those deceased listed on the BC Prayer Wall, and those we call to mind now [Pause], may know of the mercy and salvation promised in the Gospel, we pray...Lord, hear our prayer.

Presider: God of all kindness, perfect our thinking so that we may come to know and see your will in response to our prayers that we make both now and always in the name of Christ our Lord. AMEN.
