

Prayers of the Faithful
Fifth Sunday of Easter
May 10, 2020

Presider: Almighty God, we turn now in prayer, placing our trust in you.

Lector:

That we, the Church, a temple built of living stones, may joyfully witness to the transforming power of the Gospel, we pray...Lord, hear our Prayer.

For all world leaders, may they work together to foster peace, economic justice, care for our planet, and a genuine commitment to protect all human life, we pray...Lord, hear our Prayer.

That the people of our nation, may exercise prudence and cooperation in helping to contain the spread of Covid-19 and may this current pandemic soon come to an end, we pray...Lord, hear our Prayer.

For those awaiting the Sacraments, may they do so with patience, knowing that they are precious in God's sight, we pray...Lord, hear our Prayer.

On this Mother's Day we pray for all mother's, may they receive the nurturing, loving graces they need, we pray...Lord, hear our Prayer.

For blessings on all nurses as we celebrate on Tuesday International Nurses Day, we pray...Lord, hear our Prayer.

For those who have asked for or have need of our prayers, among them those suffering from Covid-19, those listed on the Boston College Prayer Wall and those we call to mind now [pause], may they experience the healing love of God, we pray...Lord, hear our Prayer.

For those who have died, among them the victims of Covid-19, Liz Healy, our deceased mothers and those we call to mind now [Pause], may they know the splendor of the dwelling place Christ has prepared for them, we pray...Lord, hear our Prayer.

Presider: God of new life, you called us out of darkness into your own wonderful light. Hear our prayers and help us to be a light for others in and through Christ our Lord. AMEN.
