

Prayers of the Faithful
January 11 - 12, 2020
Feast of the Baptism of the Lord

Presider: Knowing that God shows no partiality, we present our prayers in that same spirit for all nations and peoples.

Lector:

For our pilgrim Church on earth, that our collective baptismal promises may help us to be a light to the nations, we pray...Lord, hear our Prayer.

For an end to all conflict and division, that diplomacy will replace violence, terrorism and war so that peace and true justice may dawn throughout our world, we pray...Lord, hear our Prayer.

For our own country's leaders during this time of political division and discord, that, in accord with our Judeo-Christian tradition, they may work together to ensure the common good, we pray...Lord, hear our Prayer.

For those suffering the effects of the earthquake in Puerto Rico and the fires still raging in Australia, that the world-wide community will address their needs and come to their aid, we pray...Lord, hear our Prayer.

For victims of antisemitism and other hate crimes, that they may be comforted by our prayers and advocacy on their behalf, we pray...Lord, hear our Prayer.

For our St. Ignatius parish community, may we help and challenge one another to live out our individual baptismal commitment more fully, we pray...Lord, hear our Prayer.

For all those who have been recommended to us for prayer, may they be strengthened by Christ's light and healing love, we pray...Lord, hear our Prayer.

For all of our beloved dead, among them Charles Petitti, Miguel Alvir Barretto, Catherine Mannix, Francis Mannix, and Mary Mannix Slaughter, Shirley Becket, Catherine Miskuly, and Mary Dafarra, may they now be blessed with the fullness of peace, we pray...Lord, hear our Prayer.

Presider: God of justice and mercy, hear our prayers and help us to show, like you, no partiality in and through Christ our Lord. AMEN.
