Presider: We turn now to our Triune God with our needs, prayers and petitions.

Lector:

For all Christians that the God of love and peace may foster ever deeper unity and reconciliation among us as individuals and as Church communities. we pray...Lord, hear our Prayer.

For Jewish, Christians, Muslims, and all peoples of good-will throughout the world that regardless of our religion or beliefs, may we come to a deeper respect for one another in order to build bridges of unity and harmony, not walls that divide, we pray...Lord, hear our Prayer.

For the peoples of the world, knowing how interconnected we all are, may we together search for ways to eliminate global pandemics, be better stewards of our environment, and foster economic justice and peace, we pray...Lord, hear our Prayer.

For our country, its leaders and its people, for the ways in which we have proven to be a stiff-necked people, may our Triune God grant us pardon and open us to address openly and honestly racism, bigotry, white privilege, homophobia, economic injustice, and any attitudes that lack or reject Gospel values, we pray...Lord, hear our Prayer.

For those who have asked for our prayers, among them those suffering with or recovering from Covid-19, the sick listed on the Boston College Prayer Wall, and those we call to mind now [Pause], may they experience God's healing love for them, we pray...Lord, hear our Prayer.

For our beloved dead, among them those who suffer from needless, violent deaths, the deceased on the Boston College Prayer Wall, those recently deceased as a result of the Coronavirus Pandemic, and those we call to mind now [Pause], may they be received into the eternal love of our God. we pray...Lord, hear our Prayer.

For our many different needs, prayers and petitions during these challenging times that we offer now in silence [Pause]. we pray...Lord, hear our Prayer.

Presider: Triune God, bless our diversity and bring all peoples together united with one solid purpose: to love one another. We ask this in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. AMEN.
